

2nd Annual Beach Walk for Lyme

5-Mile Walk

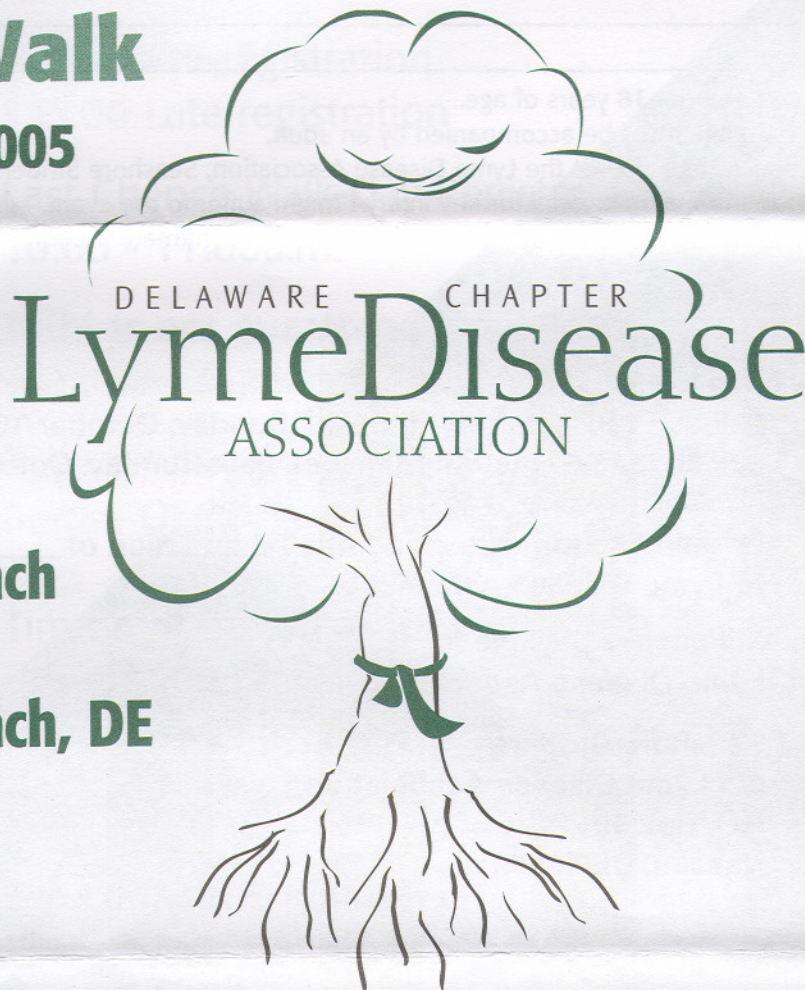

October 23, 2005

10:00a.m.
Registration

11:00a.m.
Walk

Rehoboth Beach
Bandstand

Rehoboth Beach, DE

Getting to the Root
of the Problem

What is Lyme Disease?

Lyme disease is a bacterial infection most commonly contracted from a tick bite. It often causes a flu-like sickness. Untreated, or inadequately treated, it can cause long-term, persistent illness that often affects more than one system of the body.

Lyme Disease is the most prevalent vector-borne disease in the United States, reported in 49 states and the District of Columbia. It also is the most prevalent vector-borne bacterial disease in the world!

Presented by

Lyme Disease Association, Delaware Chapter

Lyme Disease Association, Inc., is a 501(c) (3) Non-Profit Organization, Contributions are tax deductible

Awards given to top fund raisers!

for more information:

302.644.8952

www.LymeDiseaseAssociation.Org